

invite you to

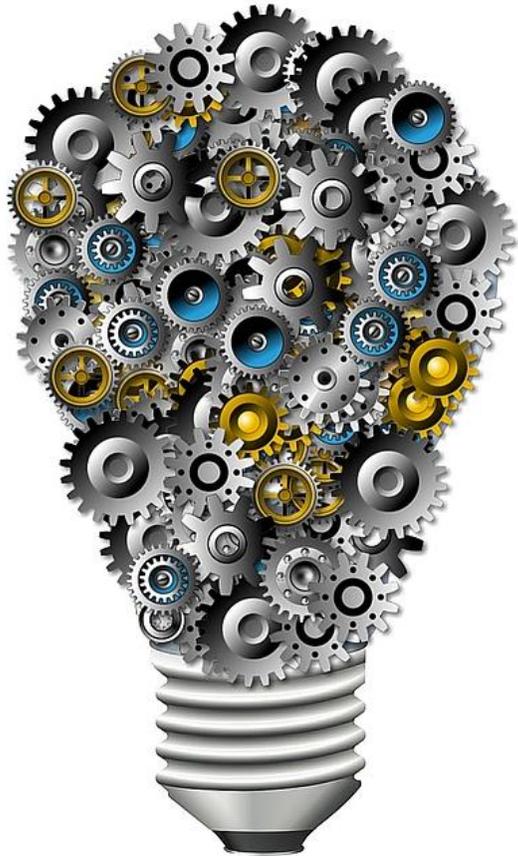

An Innovation workshop – key considerations for law firms

The workshop will cover innovation from inception to execution and will focus on how to create an approach to innovation which is meaningful and delivers real benefits to your firm and clients. Those who should attend (but not limited to): Business Service Directors, CTO, CIO, COO, Head of Transformation, Head of Portfolio/Programmes, Partners

Presented by Tiggy Robinson, Partner & Legal Expert, Nine Feet Tall
At 12 Colston Avenue, Bristol, BS1 4ST on 15th May 2019

A G E N D A

- 3.30pm Registration and refreshments
- 3.45pm Round table workshop: a practical working session which will help you to identify where you are on your innovation journey in terms of maturity, answer your questions and give you an action plan to kick start your programme or to continue it with renewed focus. Come prepared to share your experiences and chat about common issues or opportunities
- 5.15pm Networking
- 5.30pm Close

Tiggy Robinson, Partner & Legal Expert, Nine Feet Tall

Skilled at project delivery, an expert change manager and a cultural change specialist, Tiggy is a Partner with over 15 years' experience. Extremely versatile and personable, Tiggy has led the delivery of numerous projects and programmes for law firms, including both technical and business change programmes. Tiggy's key skills are advising firms on how to review their project portfolios, set up innovation programmes and project management offices. Always striving to establish strong, lasting relationships built on trust and open conversation, Tiggy speaks her mind and believes that the keys to delivering successful projects are to get out there and talk to teams on the ground, understand their concerns and frustrations and then work to find positive ways forward.

