

In Mental Health Awareness Week - our panel discusses how can we create mentally healthy workplaces?

How can we create mentally healthy legal workplaces and promote a positive working environment? What practical steps are firms and chambers taking to create workplaces that support individuals with mental health concerns and encourage a culture of acceptance?

Join Elizabeth Rimmer, CEO of LawCare and panel chair together with an expert panel of senior leaders and mental health champions:

- ▲ Ben Morris, Employee Relations Manager, DAC Beachcroft
- ▲ Caroline Bellamy, HR and Benefits Manager, Foot Anstey
- ▲ Stephen Wyeth, Barrister (Employment), 3PB
- ▲ Gavin Hooper, Learning & Development Specialist, Burges Salmon
- ▲ Joanna Harris, Corporate Responsibility & Diversity Manager, Simmons & Simmons

for an engaging and interactive discussion about what makes an 'organisationally healthy workplace', what are the barriers to workplace wellbeing and what practical steps can be taken to overcome barriers to create cultural change and to create mentally healthy workplaces in the legal community.

At: Bristol Law Society, 12 Colston Avenue, Bristol, BS1 4ST

On: Tuesday 14 May 2019

Registration: 12.15pm; Seminar 12.30-2.00pm

Attendance at the event is free but please email events@bristollawsociety.com to reserve your place. Please also feel free to forward on to relevant colleagues.