

Property related learning and development needs.

A Landmark Academy guide

Landmark Information has a new programme of CPD courses, webinars and training content. It's designed and delivered in a way that works best for you and your Law firm.

Our programme of courses are aimed to support your personal learning and development and maintain or improve your understanding of environmental law within property, policy and practice skills as required by the Solicitors Regulation Authority's (SRA) Continuing Competence Obligations. (updated August 2022)

Whether in-house, online or on video, each session will be presented by an environmental and property legal specialist.

Landmark: the experts, experts rely on

You choose how you want to learn

01

In-house

We come to you to provide your required training session to your property team(s); presented by either one of our Regional Account Managers, Experienced (PIEMA) Environmental Consultants or Professional Legal Experts.

02

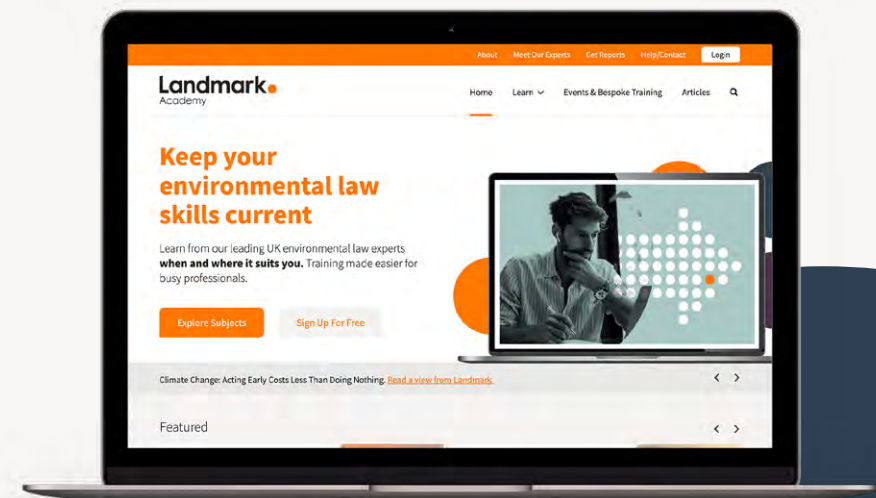

Join us online

We run a comprehensive webinar programme that covers residential and commercial environmental reporting, and detailed training on specific risk types associated with property transactions.

03

Learn in your own time

The Landmark Academy is a free online learning hub, populated with videos, articles and resources from the UK's leading environmental and property law professionals.

Why Landmark knowledge and learning

As the UK's largest property and land data business, Landmark Information Group supports the entire value chain of the property industry. This allows us unrivalled resources alongside a comprehensive team of in-house experts and extensive partner network to introduce or enhance knowledge skills around the range of property risks from the past, the current and the future.

Landmark expert training can mean you are able:

- To comply with SRA Code of Conduct on competency
- To add to your knowledge to strengthen due diligence policies
- Gain knowledge to address developments in the delivery of property legal services
- Provide your clients with the most up-to-date and best advice

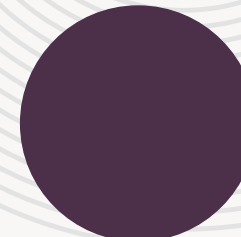

SRA continued competence

To comply with SRA Code of Conduct for Solicitors, RELs and RFLs, all solicitors must maintain their competence to carry out their role. This means they must keep their professional knowledge and skills up-to-date.

This applies to all solicitors who have a practising certificate, whether they work in the UK or overseas.

SRA Competence Statement says they need to:

- Take responsibility for their personal learning and development
- Reflect on and learn from their practice and learn from other people
- Accurately evaluate their strengths and limitations in relation to the demands of their work
- Maintain an adequate and up-to-date understanding of relevant law, policy and practice
- Adapt their practice to address developments in the delivery of legal services

In-house learning

Bringing training to your firm means that our various programs can be tailored to address your exact needs. Using specific case studies and work relevancy to provide:

- Learning consistency
- Interactive communication
- Firm efficiency
- Follow up and continuous support
- CPD certificated and allows you to provide best practice due diligence

Webinars

Scheduled program of webinars which you can plan into your learning needs diary to reflect, record and evaluate. If work interrupts, once registered, you can access a link to listen later.
